

I am a voter and a tax payer. The airways belong to the people. I am against corporations buying and consolidating our news and entertainment. We need diversity and many view points if we are to be well informed and remain a free society. I say NO to those who want to limit our choices, do not let this media take over happen!!!! Lets not let our love of money sell our airways to the highest bidder there are things more important like the truth.